

JULIETA RADA

Julieta Rada

Singer, songwriter, producer

Candombe, Pop, Soul, Fusion, Rock, R&B

"I am a singer, songwriter and producer. My project is rooted in Afro-Uruguayan music (Candombe) fusioned with other styles of Afro music such as Funk, Rock, R&B, and Soul. Although my music can be classified as pop, it's essence contains compositional elements of jazz.

UPCOMING NEW ALBUM

Candombe is the musical essence of Uruguay. It's a rhythm that connects people with the African roots of Latin America.

For her fourth studio album, Julieta Rada (Latin Grammy nominee and daughter of the iconic Uruguayan artist Ruben Rada, who composed many of the greatest songs in the South American Songbook) presents us with a special selection of traditional songs from Uruguay with a contemporary flair, while at the same time maintaining their original essence and her own unique sound. An album of Candombe 'Standards,' this record pays tribute to the Afro-Uruguayan tradition from a different perspective. Julieta eloquently mixes this traditional genre from the streets of Montevideo with the sounds of the world.

The album features acclaimed artists such as Argentinian singer/songwriter Fito Paez, Cuban percussionist and singer Pedrito Martinez, Grammy-Award Winning pianist Leo Genovese, Multiple Latin Grammy-Nominee Puerto Rican singer-songwriter ILe, African guitar master Lionel Loueke, and of course the iconic Ruben Rada.
